LB 177, 640

SENATOR NEWELL: I will agree to do it that way.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: You will have to take it up again tomorrow then, that's all I'm saying. Now, how many times has it been laid over? We have another problem. If it is laid over the third time it goes to the bottom of General File. We have to follow that one too because otherwise people are going to play games with these bills forever.

SENATOR NEWELL: Well, let's lay it over. It's not likely we will get to General File tomorrow anyway.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: All right. Senator Duis, will you withdraw your motion then?

SENATOR DUIS: I'd like to know what I'm withdrawing for, to lay over? Certainly I will. I'm merely trying to be courteous here for someone who asked me to do something so please don't accuse me of trying to manipulate. I'm not and I thank you very much, Senator Newell. You're very kind and very courteous.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Senator Newell then asked to lay over and we'll take care of it that way. So the bill will be laid over. Then you'll have to lay it over again tomorrow, Senator. That is the way you will get it done. Senator Goodrich, do you want to lay over that 92 A? All right. It will be 142. All right, that was bracketed this morning to March 15th so that one is also bracketed. March 15. We're then to LB 177.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 177 was a bill introduced by Don Dworak. (Read title to LB 177.) The bill was first read on January 11, 1977. It was referred to the Business and Labor Committee. It was advanced to General File, Mr. President. I have a series of amendments pending.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: The Chair recognizes Senator Dworak for purposes of explanation of the bill then before we get into the amendments. Senator Dworak.

SENATOR DWORAK: Are there any amendments on the desk?

CLERK: You have two, Senator. You have one, excuse me.

SENATOR DWORAK: Is that amendment in the Journal?

CLERK: Yes, sir. It is on page 760 of the Journal.

SENATOR DWORAK: I'll withdraw that. I'll ask for unanimous consent to withdraw that amendment.

CLERK: I now have one other amendment. Do you want to take up that amendment?

SENATOR DWORAK: What is the next amendment?

CLERK: The next one that I have is to indefinitely postpone.

SENATOR DWORAK: Oh!

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Mills moves to indefinitely postpone LB 177.

SENATOR MILLS: I don't think there is any question, Mr. President, members of the Legislature. This bill should be
